Academic Support

Center for Engaged Learning & Teaching \(CELT\)

Howard-Tilton Memorial Library, Suite 300 (504) 314-7698 celt@tulane.edu

CELT is committed to supporting all Tulane faculty as they prepare or continue to teach. Faculty includes full time, part time, tenure and non-tenure track positions, grad students, adjuncts who are currently or will be teaching at the wide range of campus locations and programs. With this aim in mind, CELT offers pedagogy workshops, guest lecturers, book clubs, one-on-one consultations, a lending library, peer observations, and myriad other resources, services, and programs available for all teaching focused professionals.

Connolly Alexander Institute for Data Science

The Connolly Alexander Institute for Data Science (CAIDS) aims to support a culture of data literacy at Tulane University, inviting faculty and students at every academic level to participate in a series of data-centric programming.

Goldman Center for Student Accessibility

Howard-Tilton Memorial Library, Suite B25 (504) 862-8433 goldman@tulane.edu

The Goldman Center for Accessibility is committed to ensuring a fully accessible, inclusive academic, housing, and dining experience for all students. Students with disabilities are encouraged to register with the Goldman Center if they believe that accommodations will be necessary for equal access.

Innovative Learning Center

The Center staff partners with faculty and staff on academic and research strategies and act as liaisons between Information Technology and faculty researchers. By providing a complement of skilled technologists and cutting-edge technologies, the ILC is a space of exploration for faculty to experience not only what is possible in academic technology now but also prepare them for future trends in higher education and beyond.

Mentoring Relationships

Tulane Libraries

Tulane University Libraries consist of four physical locations across two campuses in one of the most vibrant and diverse cities in North America. The Libraries serve Tulane's nine schools and one undergraduate college with over 4.6 million books and physical items; 1.2 million eBooks; nearly 200,000 online journals; 900 databases; and distinctive collections that focus on the many facets of New Orleans's music, history, and culture, including early jazz; regional history; literary culture; carnival; food and drink; and the architecture of the city and Gulf South region.

The Libraries host the Tulane Digital Library and an institutional repository and publish several OpenAccess journals. Tulane's Latin American Library (LAL) holds one of the most impressive collections in the world of materials on the history and culture of Central and South America and the Caribbean. The LAL also serves as the Secretariat for the Seminar on the Acquisition of Latin American Library Materials (SALALM), an international association of librarians, archivists, book dealers, book professionals, scholars, and students interested in collecting, preserving, and providing access to Latin American, Caribbean, Iberian, and Latinx information resources in all formats.

Matas Library of the Health Sciences in downtown New Orleans serves students and faculty in the Schools of Medicine and of Public Health and Tropical Medicine as well as the Tulane National Primate Center in Covington, LA.

Campus Life

Campus Recreation

Uptown: Reily Center 31 Janet Yulman Way

Downtown: TU Fit Deming Pavilion

Tulane Campus Recreation aspires to contribute to the Tulane University community by providing fun, inclusive spaces for wellness and learning. Campus Recreation offers fitness and wellness programs, aquatics, outdoor adventures, club sports, and intramural sports.

Club Sports

(504) 314-2862 clubsports@tulane.edu

Tulane Campus Recreation's club sport teams are recognized student organizations that are formed, developed, and governed by students. Teams are gender-inclusive, meet regularly for practice, and compete regionally, as well as nationally.

Graduate & Professional Student Association

The Graduate and Professional Student Association (GAPSA) is the unifying body of the graduate and professional divisions of Tulane University. GAPSA develops and furthers the scholastic, professional, social, and public service interests of all graduate and professional students by promoting an understanding amongst students, faculty, staff, and administrators. GAPSA also facilitates inter-division communication and coordinates activities with the undergraduate student government.

Graduate Studies Student Association

GSSA is the Graduate Studies Student Association at Tulane University. This organization is composed of Masters and Doctoral students enrolled in the School of Science and Engineering (SSE) and the School of Liberal Arts.

Intramural Sports

Tulane Campus Recreation's intramural offerings provide exercise and fun in a relaxed, yet structured environment. We offer two full seasons of team leagues and a series of one-day and weekend tournaments.

The Lavin-Bernick Center for University Life & The Commons

Lavin-Bernick Center (504) 865-5190

The Lavin-Bernick Center for University Life and The Malkin Sacks Commons is more than just a building. We are a hub for campus life that houses meeting space, campus programming, dining options, the bookstore, student involvement opportunities, and lots of student resources. As the center of the campus community, these spaces enhance the Tulane student experience by creating an innovative, dynamic, and inclusive learning environment through quality facilities, programs, and services.

Outdoor Adventures

Tulane Campus Recreation's outdoor adventure offerings are your opportunity to explore the region and discover new skills on the water or on the trail. Beyond our trip schedule, our Outdoor Adventures team can provide you with consulting and rental gear to assist you in your own outdoor plans.

WaveSync

WaveSync is your way to connect to student organizations, learn about events happening on campus, and learn how to get involved at Tulane. Simply log-in with your Tulane credentials and you will be able to access the directory of student organizations, the campus events calendar, and more!

Campus Services

Bicycle Rules & Permit Registration

Lavin-Bernick Center, 1⁰⁷ (504) 865-5441

All faculty, staff, and students who operate or park bicycles on the Tulane campus must register the bicycle with the Tulane University Police Department and display a Tulane University Bicycle Permit.

Bookstore

Lavin-Bernick Center, 1st Floor (504) 865-5913

The official Tulane bookstore offers all the required textbooks and supplies for academic courses, along with a large selection of reference and general interest books. You can also outfit yourself and family with Tulane gear, as well as find items for your residence hall, apartment, or office. The bookstore also carries health and beauty aids, greeting cards, gifts, and convenience items.

Dining Services

Uptown: Lavin-Bernick Center, 107 (504) 865-5441

Downtown: Tidewater Building, 803 (504) 865-5441

Tulane Dining Services provides dining and communal table concepts at the downtown and uptown campuses, and the Tulane National Primate Research Center. Our aim is to provide inclusive quality dining, including gluten-free and vegan options. We are also dedicated to accommodating people who have allergies and a range of dietary needs. We offer balanced and nutritious meals on and off campus, with a large selection of contemporary dining locations.

Splash Card Services

Uptown: Lavin-Bernick Center, 107 (504) 865-5441

Downtown: Tidewater Building, 803 (504) 865-5441

splashcard@tulane.edu

The Tulane Splash Card is more than a university ID. It provides entrance to residence halls, the Commons Dining Room, academic buildings, athletic events, and other campus events. The Splash Card also offers access to on-campus financial accounts, including Splash Cash, and Accounts Receivable. The Splash Cash debit account offers the convenience of making on-campus and off-campus purchases without the need to carry cash or credit cards.

Tech Connect

Lavin-Bernick Center, Suite 104 (504) 862-8059

Technology Connection is the Tulane University owned and operated store that assists students, faculty and staff with their personal and institutional hardware, software, and accessory needs. Our partnerships and collaboration with university schools, departments, and administration allow us to provide tailored technology solutions and services to help support your success at Tulane.

Career Support

Freeman School of Business Career Management Center

Here, we offer expert, hands-on guidance to prepare you for a successful transition into the workplace and well into the future. Through one-on-one career advising, resume reviews, mock interviews, and a host of other services, we give you the skills you will use throughout your professional life.

Law School Career Services

Tulane's career development staff members serve as both generalists and specialists in practice areas and settings, covering the wide range of students' professional interests. Internally, career counselors provide individual counseling to help students tackle the job search. The Career Development Office holds programs on legal positions in specific practice areas, from corporate to environmental law, and specific practice settings, from the private sector to government work. The counselors also conduct workshops on job search strategies, including resumes and cover letters, interviewing skills and networking techniques.

LinkedIn Learning

As a Tulane student, you have free access to LinkedIn's vast library of courses taught by industry leaders. Choose from over 15,000 courses using your Tulane credentials to sign in.

Office of Graduate & Postdoctoral Studies Career Resources

The resources on this page are a small sampling of relevant articles to the OGPS population – however, they are no substitute for personalized career services and workshops, unique to Tulane's population. You are eligible for personalized career services as a graduate student in the School of Liberal Arts (Masters and PhD), School of Science and Engineering (Masters and PhD), Public Health and Tropical Medicine (PhD only), Freeman Business School (PhD only), and School of Medicine (Biomedical Sciences only, PhD and Masters).

In addition, all Postdoctoral Fellows at Tulane University are eligible for personalized career services. It is highly recommended that Masters Students have their first meeting with our career counseling team no later than 6 months prior to graduation and that our PhD students meet with our career services team before they complete their qualifying exams.

Premium Online Services

The Tulane Career Services team has researched and invested in a number of premium online services to assist you with their job search. These online services are available to only our Tulane University students and may not be accessed by non-Tulane University students.

School of Architecture Career Services

Personalized assistance and advising is available to students within the School of Architecture through one-on-one advising, career workshops and an elective course. These offerings provide students opportunities to refine interview skills, develop professional contacts and practice career building skills.

School of Medicine Career Development

The information contained in this website is designed to address questions about career goals and developing your pathway in medicine.

School of Professional Advancement Career Development

Welcome to the ultimate hub for career development and professional growth at Tulane University's School of Professional Advancement. We understand that landing your dream job takes a lot of determination, and with our comprehensive Career Services Portal on Canvas, we make it easy for you to access all the resources you need in one convenient location.

SPHTM Career Services

The Career Services office works with current graduate students in the School of Public Health & Tropical Medicine, undergraduate public health majors, and public health alumni, guiding them in their job search and professional development.

Student Career Guides

Review and download these guides to help you with your career planning and job search.

Access Health Louisiana

No one will be denied access to services due to an inability to pay, and there is a discounted sliding fee schedule available based on family size and income.

Campus Health Access & Health Insurance

Campus Health Guide to Off-Campus Health Services

Campus Health wants to offer support to Tulane students that may need or have the desire to visit community resources for their personal healthcare. Using off-campus resources can be difficult to navigate, which is why Campus Health has provided an off-campus resource guide for marginalized identities to have access to a list of healthcare providers in New Orleans that are well-known for assisting these populations.

This guide consists of primary care physicians and therapists that are a part of these communities and/or work closely with racial and ethnic marginalized populations, sexual and gender marginalized populations, veterans, and professionals that offer services in multiple languages. These professionals were selected based on their personal statements online, patient and community reviews, and external audits.

Metro Centers for Community Advocacy

504-837-5400 (24/7 hotline)

Metro is a confidential off-campus resource dedicated to supporting survivors of sexual assault, intimate partner violence, stalking, and child abuse. In addition to a 24/7 hotline, Metro provides wrap-around services including individual advocacy, information and referrals, group support, medical advocacy, legal advocacy, sheltering, individual support, safety planning, and caregiver support to survivors in eight Louisiana parishes, including the New Orleans area. All services are free and confidential.

Protective Orders

Protective orders, also known as restraining orders, can be an important tool to promote safety for victims/survivors and to prevent contact with an individual who has caused harm. This video series is designed to help students learn more about protective orders and understand how to file for a civil order of protection from intimate partner abuse, sexual assault, or stalking.

Reporting to the Police

NOPD investigates all incidents of sexual violence in the city, including on Tulane's campus, but you can reach out to TUPD first to report what has happened. TUPD will immediately reach out to NOPD, and their detectives will come to you. If you have experienced sexual violence outside of the New Orleans area but want to connect with law enforcement, TUPD can help connect you to the appropriate authorities.

Reporting to Tulane

When a person experiences sexual violence or harassment, it can feel as though your power—your choices—have been taken away from you. When you disclose to Tulane, we want you to get your power back. That's why disclosing to Tulane means that you have choices to make about what the next steps look like. Choosing to disclose sexual harassment or violence, let alone file a formal complaint to initiate a grievance procedure, is a personal decision. Tulane wants to ensure that students are well informed and supported in their decision to disclose and in their decisions around participating in a grievance procedure.

SAPHE Peer Hotline \(for students\)

Available 24/7 during Fall and Spring Academic Semester at 504-654-9543

SAPHE is a compassionate group of Tulane students who provide resources and support to the Tulane community through a confidential, peer run 24/7 hotline. SAPHE members are trained in trauma informed care and empathetic listening so that they are well equipped to provide support and resources to any person who might need them.

Sexual Assault Forensic Exam

If you have experienced sexual violence or intimate partner violence, you may choose to have a sexual assault forensic exam preformed, sometimes known as a “rape kit,” to preserve possible DNA evidence and receive important medical care. You may accept or decline any and all parts of an exam or suggested treatment. Providers will assist you to make choices about your care.

Patients who are 18 years or older do not have to report to police or press charges to get a forensics/sexual assault exam. You have 1 year to decide whether or not to have law enforcement process the kit.

A forensic medical examination may include evidence collection up to 120 hours (5 days) after a sexual assault. If it is more than 5 days since the assault, there are still services available to you.

Sexual Assault Healing Activity Book
