The Tulane University Police Department (TUPD) is a full-service law enforcement agency that provides police services to the uptown and downtown campuses. TUPD strives to adhere to the best practices, including nationally recognized standards for the delivery of police services, and is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies (CALEA).

TUPD officers work collaboratively with the New Orleans Police Department and are commissioned and vested with full powers of arrest at all Tulane University properties and within a one-mile perimeter area surrounding the uptown campus. The downtown campus patrols cover an area bounded by S. Claiborne Avenue to Loyola Avenue and Poydras Street to Canal Street. There are also several Tulane University properties outside of this boundary that are checked daily. TUPD officers patrol our campuses and the surrounding communities 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.
SAFETY & SECURITY

DID YOU KNOW?

Once your lease is signed and with the permission of your landlord, you can ask TUPD to perform a security check of the apartment. Contact TUPD at police@tulane.edu or call 504-865-5381.
Before You Sign

Inspect the residence for fire safety equipment.

Pursuant to New Orleans Municipal Code, all dwelling units should have an operable fire detection system and alarm. Such systems may be hard-wired or battery-operated.

The New Orleans Fire Department (NOFD) offers free installation of up to two (2) smoke alarms per residence. The Free Smoke Alarm Installation Program Request Form is available at tulane.it/NOFD.

The Tulane University Uptown Campus is in the 6th NOFD District.

The Tulane University Downtown Campus is in the 2nd NOFD District.
Review the New Orleans Police Department (NOPD) Crime Map, available at tulane.it/NOPD

The Tulane University Uptown Campus is in the 2nd Police District

The Tulane University Downtown Campus is in the 8th Police District.

Ask friends, neighbors, and current residents for feedback about the landlord and the property. Does the landlord respond quickly to problems, such as a broken appliance? How noisy is the area? Is the property well maintained — inside and outside?

Ask TUPD to perform a free security check of the apartment. Your prospective landlord will need to approve this. To schedule an appointment, contact TUPD at police@tulane.edu or (504)865-5381
• Avoid walking alone at night. Walk with friends, call TUPD for an escort, or take Tulane TapRide.

• TUPD Escorts are available to all Tulane affiliates 24 hours a day, seven days a week. To request a TUPD escort, call: 504-865-5381.

• Tulane TapRide provides on-demand service for Tulane community members.

• Be alert and be aware of your surroundings. Talking on a cellphone or listening to headphones can make you less alert and an easier target for criminals.

• Stay in well-lit areas. Walk the WAVE Way.

• If you are being harassed, try to attract attention to yourself and head toward any well-lit buildings/locations where people are present.

• Always carry personal identification (Splash Card, state-issued ID, military ID, etc.).

• Trust your instincts. If someone or something makes you uneasy, avoid the person and leave the area.
• Always lock the doors to your house, even when you are home.

• Contact your landlord immediately if you have any concerns about the security at your house. Landlords are required to provide effective locks for residences.

• Always keep your windows locked.

• Leave an exterior light on at night.

• Never allow strangers to come into your home. Check the identification of sales and service people before allowing them inside.

• Keep your valuables, cash, and important documents, such as passport, visa, lease, and insurance documents, in a fireproof and waterproof safe or lockbox that is kept out of sight.
SAFETY & SECURITY – HOME SAFETY TIPS

• Plan to take this safe or lockbox with you should you need to evacuate.

• Record information about your electronics, including the make, model and any serial numbers in the event they are missing or stolen.

• Purchase a lock for your laptop and keep it locked as often as possible.

• If the residence has existing security cameras or other security features, make sure they are in working order and you learn how to access and use them.

• If you come home and see an open door or broken window, do not go in. Call 911 and wait for the police in a safe place outside of your home.

While Carnival season doesn't start until January, think ahead and be wary of "the box"

Mardi Gras parades are a lot of fun, but moving around during some weeks of parade season can be difficult!

The area highlighted (and the adjacent area around it) has high traffic toward the end of the Carnival season.

If you are looking at living in the vicinity of the Uptown parade routes, do a bit of research online

*the box is not the only area of the city that sees high traffic during the season. Visit the Mardi Gras website (https://www.mardigrasneworleans.com/) to see where routes are to and to anticipate where you might be impacted by traffic!
WHAT IS INCLUDED AT THE PROPERTY?

• Are any utilities included in my rent?
• Is there in-unit laundry? Do I share the laundry unit with other tenants in other units?

SIGNING A LEASE
TULAP is a legal services program funded by the Tulane Undergraduate Assembly. TULAP provides free legal advice and low-cost representation to current Tulane University students, staff, and faculty. TULAP also provides free notarial services and information regarding legal rights. TULAP cannot represent one member of the Tulane community against another, as that would present a conflict of interest.

Please note that TULAP’s services are available ONLY to current Tulane students, faculty and staff. The clinics are open during the academic year but closed during final exams, breaks and other university holidays. You MUST provide a Tulane email address to make an appointment.

TULAP University Square
200 Broadway Street, Suite 212 New Orleans, Louisiana 70118 504-865-5515 tulap@tulane.edu tulane.it/TULAP
Before signing a lease, you should know the answers to these questions:

• How long is the lease term?
• What is the security deposit and is it refundable?
• What is the monthly rent? What is included in this price? (utilities, lawn care, internet/cable)
• When is rent due and how do I pay it?
• What is the penalty for late payment?
• Is there 24/7 maintenance, if I have an emergency?
Questions continued:

- What are the rules for personalizing my apartment? (hanging things on the walls, painting etc.)
- How much notice will I be given before someone enters my apartment?
- How often are the locks changed?
- What will you do to prepare the apartment before I move in?
- What are the penalties for breaking the lease should something come up?
Information to know before signing

- Read your lease thoroughly before signing.
  - What does all this mean? If you aren’t sure, consult a lawyer.
  - Make sure the lease is complete. Anything not in the lease is not binding, even if your landlord orally agrees to it.

- Emergency and non-emergency maintenance issues:
  - Tenant’s obligation to report dangerous conditions.
  - Landlord’s right of access for repairs, maintenance, inspections

- Landlord’s liability and renter’s insurance

- Recording your lease: what it protects, and what it doesn’t.
REVIEWING & SIGNING YOUR LEASE

“Background check” your landlord and apartment

- If possible, inspect the apartment and check out your neighborhood. Does it seem unsafe? A bad neighborhood is not a valid reason to void your lease.

- If possible, speak to the current tenants about the landlord. If you can’t personally visit before you sign because you are not in town, consider having a friend who is here visit for you. Ask the landlord for permission to call current tenants to ask about their experience.

- Trust your instincts! There are a lot of shady slumlords in New Orleans, but there are also a lot of good ones. If something feels off, don’t be afraid to walk away.
○ Take pictures, pictures, and more pictures! Take pictures before you move in and, again, after you have moved out your belongings.

○ Provide timely notice to your landlord before moving out. Check your lease on how much advanced notice you need to give.

○ Time passes and things change. Don't fall into the trap of thinking it's "illegal" to try and modify or even break a lease if the need arises. Like rules, contracts are meant to be broken. Our Civil Code accounts for this.
○ If you and your landlord agree to end the lease early, make sure the agreement is formalized in a supplemental contract called an addendum.

○ If you need to move and your landlord refuses to negotiate, talk to a lawyer first to see what you need to do to protect yourself.

○ Time passes and things change. Don't fall into the trap of thinking it's "illegal" to try and modify or even break a lease if the need arises. Like rules, contracts are meant to be broken. Our Civil Code accounts for this.
• Be sure you obtain a signed copy of the lease at the time you and the landlord sign it.

• If you are going to share your housing with roommates, be sure that all the roommates sign the lease. Only those people whose names are signed to the lease are ultimately responsible for rent, damages, or other liabilities.

• Unless the signed lease provides otherwise, Louisiana law states that roommates are considered as joint obligors, which means that each roommate can be held liable for the full amount of the lease, not just their individual share.

• Be sure that any changes to the lease are written into the lease and initialed by both parties.

• If possible, we suggest that you NOT sign any lease containing the following clauses, as they can severely restrict your rights:
  • Lessee waives Lessor’s liability for any defects on the premises
  • Lessee is liable for attorney’s fees

• You should be aware that very large corporate landlords are totally inflexible about making changes in their lease forms
Renting from abroad presents unique challenges: inspecting the apartment, negotiating the lease, shorter lease term, and getting back your deposit.

Since most leases are signed for one year, consider looking for a one semester sublease offered by another student.

Some landlords prey on international students to keep their deposits knowing that they are unlikely to return to the US to go to court.

If you are back home and your landlord refuses to return your security deposit, you can meet with TULAP virtually to act on your behalf.

Find a "Louisiana buddy" you can assign your rights to if the need arises.

Everbridge is Tulane University’s emergency notification system. In an emergency, Everbridge sends messages via telephone, text message, email and app notification.

How does the Everbridge app work?
Once you register with your Tulane credentials, the Everbridge app will give you the ability to communicate via text, emergency call button and the ability to send photographs of suspicious persons/events directly to Tulane University Police Department (TUPD).

Virtual Escort (Safe Corridor) - Safely walk on campus by leaving a breadcrumb of your locations. If you don’t check-in, an SOS will automatically trigger an emergency request to TUPD.

Emergency Call Button (SOS) Through a mobile device, a user can send an alert to TUPD with one click, automatically providing student information and GPS location.

The Everbridge app can be downloaded from the Google Play or Apple App Store.
HURRICANE EVACUATION PLAN

• Update all information in the Gibson Portal including all emergency contacts and your evacuation plan
  https://gibson.tulane.edu/tulane/legacy/storm_plan

• Evacuation Policy Link: https://policy.tulane.edu/policy-library
Hurricane season is June 1 – November 30.

- Atlantic Ocean:
  - Typically we see these form 7+ days before landfall.
  - Approximately 5 days before landfall we start to have a good sense of the storm's path and projected landfall area.

- Gulf of Mexico:
  - Typically we see these form approximately 4 days before landfall.
  - Decision to close and evacuate or close and shelter in place made as soon as possible once projected path is known.

- Hurricane Hazards:
  - High winds
  - Storm surge
  - Heavy rainfall and inland flooding.

- Hurricane impacts:
  - Power outages
  - Loss of internet service
  - Boil water advisories/pumping station issues
  - Flooding
  - Supply chain disruption/interruption
  - Fuel shortages
WHAT WILL TULANE DO?

• Close and shelter in place:
  • Remote classes or cancel classes, cease normal business operations, and shelter on-campus residents in their residence halls
  • Expected impacts to New Orleans and Tulane are manageable

• Close and evacuate:
  • Cancel classes, cease normal business operations, and everyone MUST evacuate
  • Expected impacts to New Orleans and Tulane are significant
    • We can declare a mandatory evacuation even if the City of New Orleans does not

 In the first two options, we will run shuttles to the airport

• Nothing:
  • Storm forecast area does not include New Orleans
  • No expected impacts to New Orleans or Tulane
• Very likely will lose power. Power can be off for days to weeks.

• Boil water advisory and sewerage pumping station issues possible.

• Students will need to ensure they have bottled water, non-perishable food items, flashlights, batteries, etc.

• Sheltering on campus cannot be guaranteed.
EVACUATING – OFF CAMPUS STUDENTS

• Personal evacuation plans must be submitted by July 15.

• Do NOT rely on the university to evacuate you. The university is NOT your primary plan.

• Tulane will run shuttles to the New Orleans airport until approximately 1 day before landfall.

• Your plan can change.
PERSONAL PREPAREDNESS

• Develop a personal evacuation plan:
  • Where will you go?
  • When will you make the decision to stay or leave?
  • How will you travel out of the city? Rail and bus transportation will not be available options if the city institutes a mandatory evacuation.
  • Who is your designated out-of-town contact?
  • Remember to include your pets and family members in your plan.

BEING A GOOD NEIGHBOR
BEING A GOOD NEIGHBOR

• While the number of neighborhoods in New Orleans is debatable (the official map has 73), it is not debatable that New Orleanians love their respective neighborhoods and the city. There are six different neighborhoods adjacent to our uptown campus and five adjacent to our downtown campus. Each of these has unique characteristics, but they are all residential.

• Understanding that you are now a part of a residential community is one of the most important aspects of living off campus. There are new expectations and responsibilities that come with living in neighborhoods. Noise, trash and unsafe living conditions affect people who live in and visit our neighborhoods.

• It is important to become familiar with your rights and responsibilities as a citizen and neighbor, with the university’s expectations of you as an off-campus student resident, and with local laws and resources that will assist you in living off campus.

• Additionally, we hope you experience the unfathomable fullness New Orleans — and all its neighborhoods — has to offer. From our legendary restaurants and numerous festivals to enjoying Audubon Park and listening to local musicians at Wednesday at the Square, there is something for everyone.

• Meet your neighbors as soon as you move into your new home and exchange contact information. Listen to their experiences with former residents and commit to keeping communication open during your lease. If there is a problem in the future, it’s easier to discuss it with someone you already know.
BEING A GOOD NEIGHBOR

- Living off campus is a very different experience from living in a university residence hall.
- Living in a New Orleans neighborhood is an exciting privilege that brings independence and requires responsibility.
- The neighborhoods surrounding Tulane are full of diverse people whose lifestyles, schedules, and living arrangements may vary greatly from yours.
- Residents of the historic neighborhoods around Tulane maintain and expect a high quality of life. They expect you, as a neighbor, to uphold and maintain that high quality too.
• All students are required to know and abide by the Tulane University Code of Conduct. If students are found to have violated the Code of Conduct, appropriate disciplinary consequences may result. The Code of Conduct extends to behavior off campus. Additionally, violations of state or local laws by Tulane University students are addressed by the Office of Student Conduct.

• Visit conduct.tulane.edu for more information.
BEING A GOOD NEIGHBOR – NOISE ORDINANCE

Being a Good Neighbor means abiding by the city’s quality of life ordinances regarding trash and noise.

• The New Orleans Municipal Code prohibits any noise above conversation level (60 dB) be heard in a neighbor’s home for a sustained period of time. This is in effect 24 hours per day. The New Orleans Municipal Code prohibits amplified noise at a level audible in a neighbor’s home between 9 p.m. and 10 a.m. Sunday–Thursday, and between 10:30 p.m. and 10 a.m. Friday and Saturday.

• This applies to homes that share an interior wall, such as a double or other multi-unit residence, and to homes that share property lines.

• Violating this ordinance can result in a misdemeanor charge or citation, which is punishable by fine and/or imprisonment. Each day a violation is committed or permitted to continue shall constitute a separate offense and shall be punishable as such.

• Additionally, these violations can result in a University conduct violation.

• Please remember you are now part of a residential community that is comprised of more than college students. There are families with young children, elderly adults and people who work a variety of hours. It is important to obey the ordinance and understand that people want quiet throughout the day and night.
• Trash carts are not to be placed curbside before 4:00 pm of the day prior to collection day.
• Trash carts are to be removed from the curb before 7:00 pm on collection day.
• In between collection days, trash carts are to be stored on your property and cannot block any pedestrian or vehicular traffic along sidewalks, streets, and other rights-of-way.
• If you have bulk trash (furniture, mattresses), you must schedule a pickup via 311.
• Bulk items are not to be placed out for collection more than 24 hours prior to the scheduled date provided by the city.
• Additionally, trash violations can result in a University conduct violation.
BEING A GOOD NEIGHBOR – TRASH ORDINANCE

- To register for a trash collection roll cart or report a missed collection call: 311.
- If your building has more than four (4) units, then your landlord is required to contract privately for trash collection. This includes bulk items too.
- Violation of any of the above can result in fines for tenants and landlords.
- Your home’s curbside trash and recycling pickup schedule can be found at: www.nola.gov/sanitation/schedules/.
BEING A GOOD NEIGHBOR

Do not park vehicles in your yard or your neighbors’ yards.

Abide by all posted parking regulations or park on campus.

Do introduce yourself to your neighbors and be polite and friendly.

Do let your neighbors know if you plan to have a party and who to contact if there are any problems. Otherwise, they will call the police first.

Good communication between you and your neighbors will be the best tool for preventing conflicts. The key is mutual respect and cooperation.

Do call 311 to report dangerous or damaged streets, inoperable streetlights, blight, and code violations.

Do follow all Tulane policies, the Tulane Code of Student Conduct, all city and state laws, and a general sense of courtesy to your neighbors.
